AWARD HISTORY

Newsletter of the Year is awarded by the National Society of Histotechnologists and is sponsored by Hacker Instruments. The editor receives a plaque/certificate with a $500.00 grant to the state society.

This award is given annually to the state newsletter, which in the opinion of the Awards Committee, best satisfies the following.

1. Reflects state, regional, and national news (clarity).
2. Have articles that are beneficial to the histology laboratory and are fully referenced (content).
3. Edited such that all entries are clear and to the point. Grammatical errors should be absent (neatness).
4. Present itself in an attractive manner throughout the issue.
